Many years ago a secret government organization abducted the man called Logan, a mutant possessing razorsharp bone claws and the ability to heal from virtually any wound. In its attempt to create the perfect living weapon, the organization bonded the unbreakable metal Adamantium to his skeleton. The process was excruciating and by the end there was little left of the man known as Logan. He had become...

WOLVERINE WEAPONX

Logan has just awakened to find himself in the insane asylum known as Dunwich Sanatorium with no memory of any kind. Here, along with all the other psychotics and mentally ill, he is tormented by the mysterious butcher Dr. Rottwell who goes to great lengths to convince Logan that he is crazy and belongs in the asylum as one of his patients. But Dr. Rot also seems to be aware of Logan's true origin and is antagonizing him in an attempt to release his more violent tendencies. Why he is doing this remains unclear but so far Dr. Rot has not been successful.

Meanwhile Dr. Rot is busy with another project. He has secretly been murdering patients of the asylum—and in some cases regular people—and stealing their brains...
